

RF-4C Wrap-Around Camo

Drawings by Greg Kuklinski and Mike Brickman

Around the beginning of 1981, the US Air Force began to repaint their tactical aircraft in a wrap-around color scheme. The objective is to provide a more effective camouflage for the European environment, where the wrap-around pattern has been found to be desirable. The aircraft are being repainted at regularly scheduled maintenance periods.

1/72 Scale

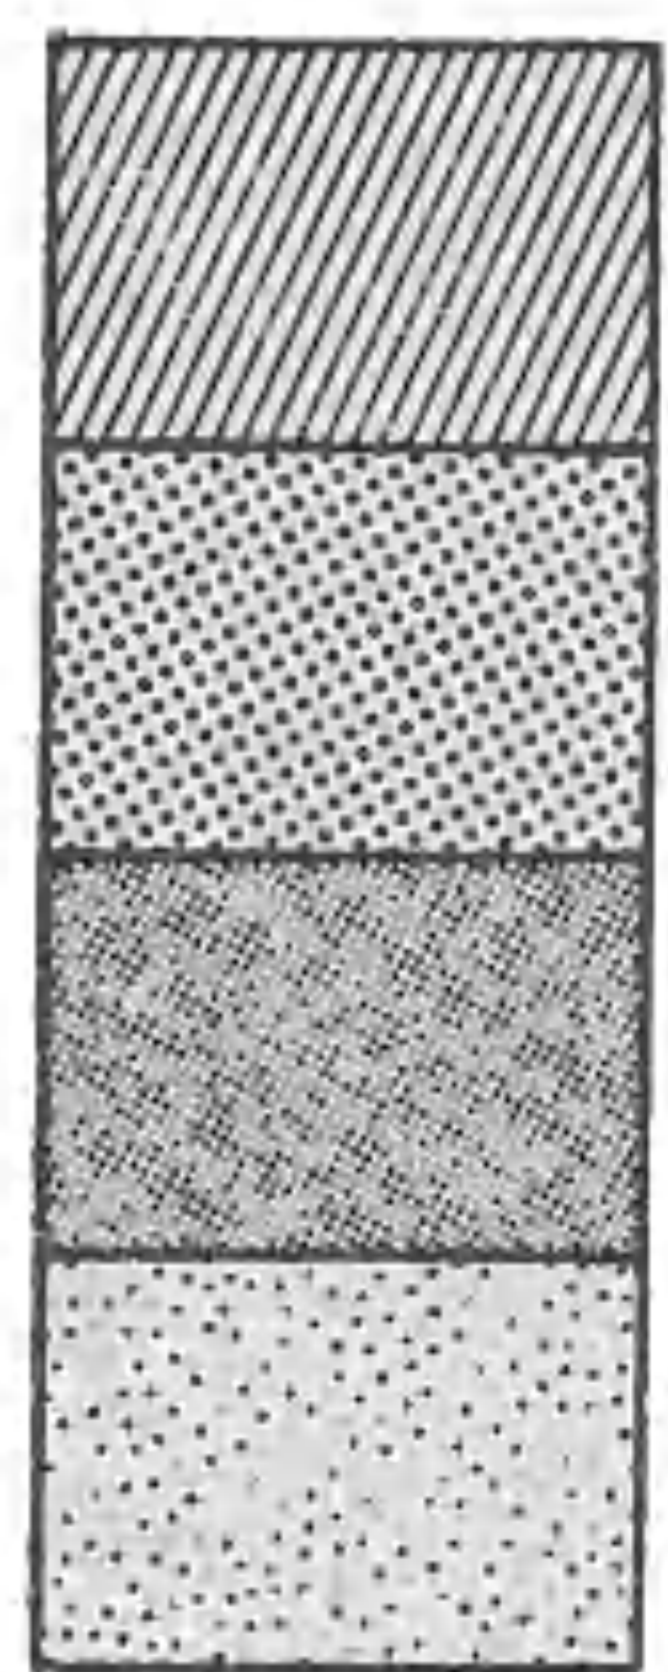

1/72 Scale

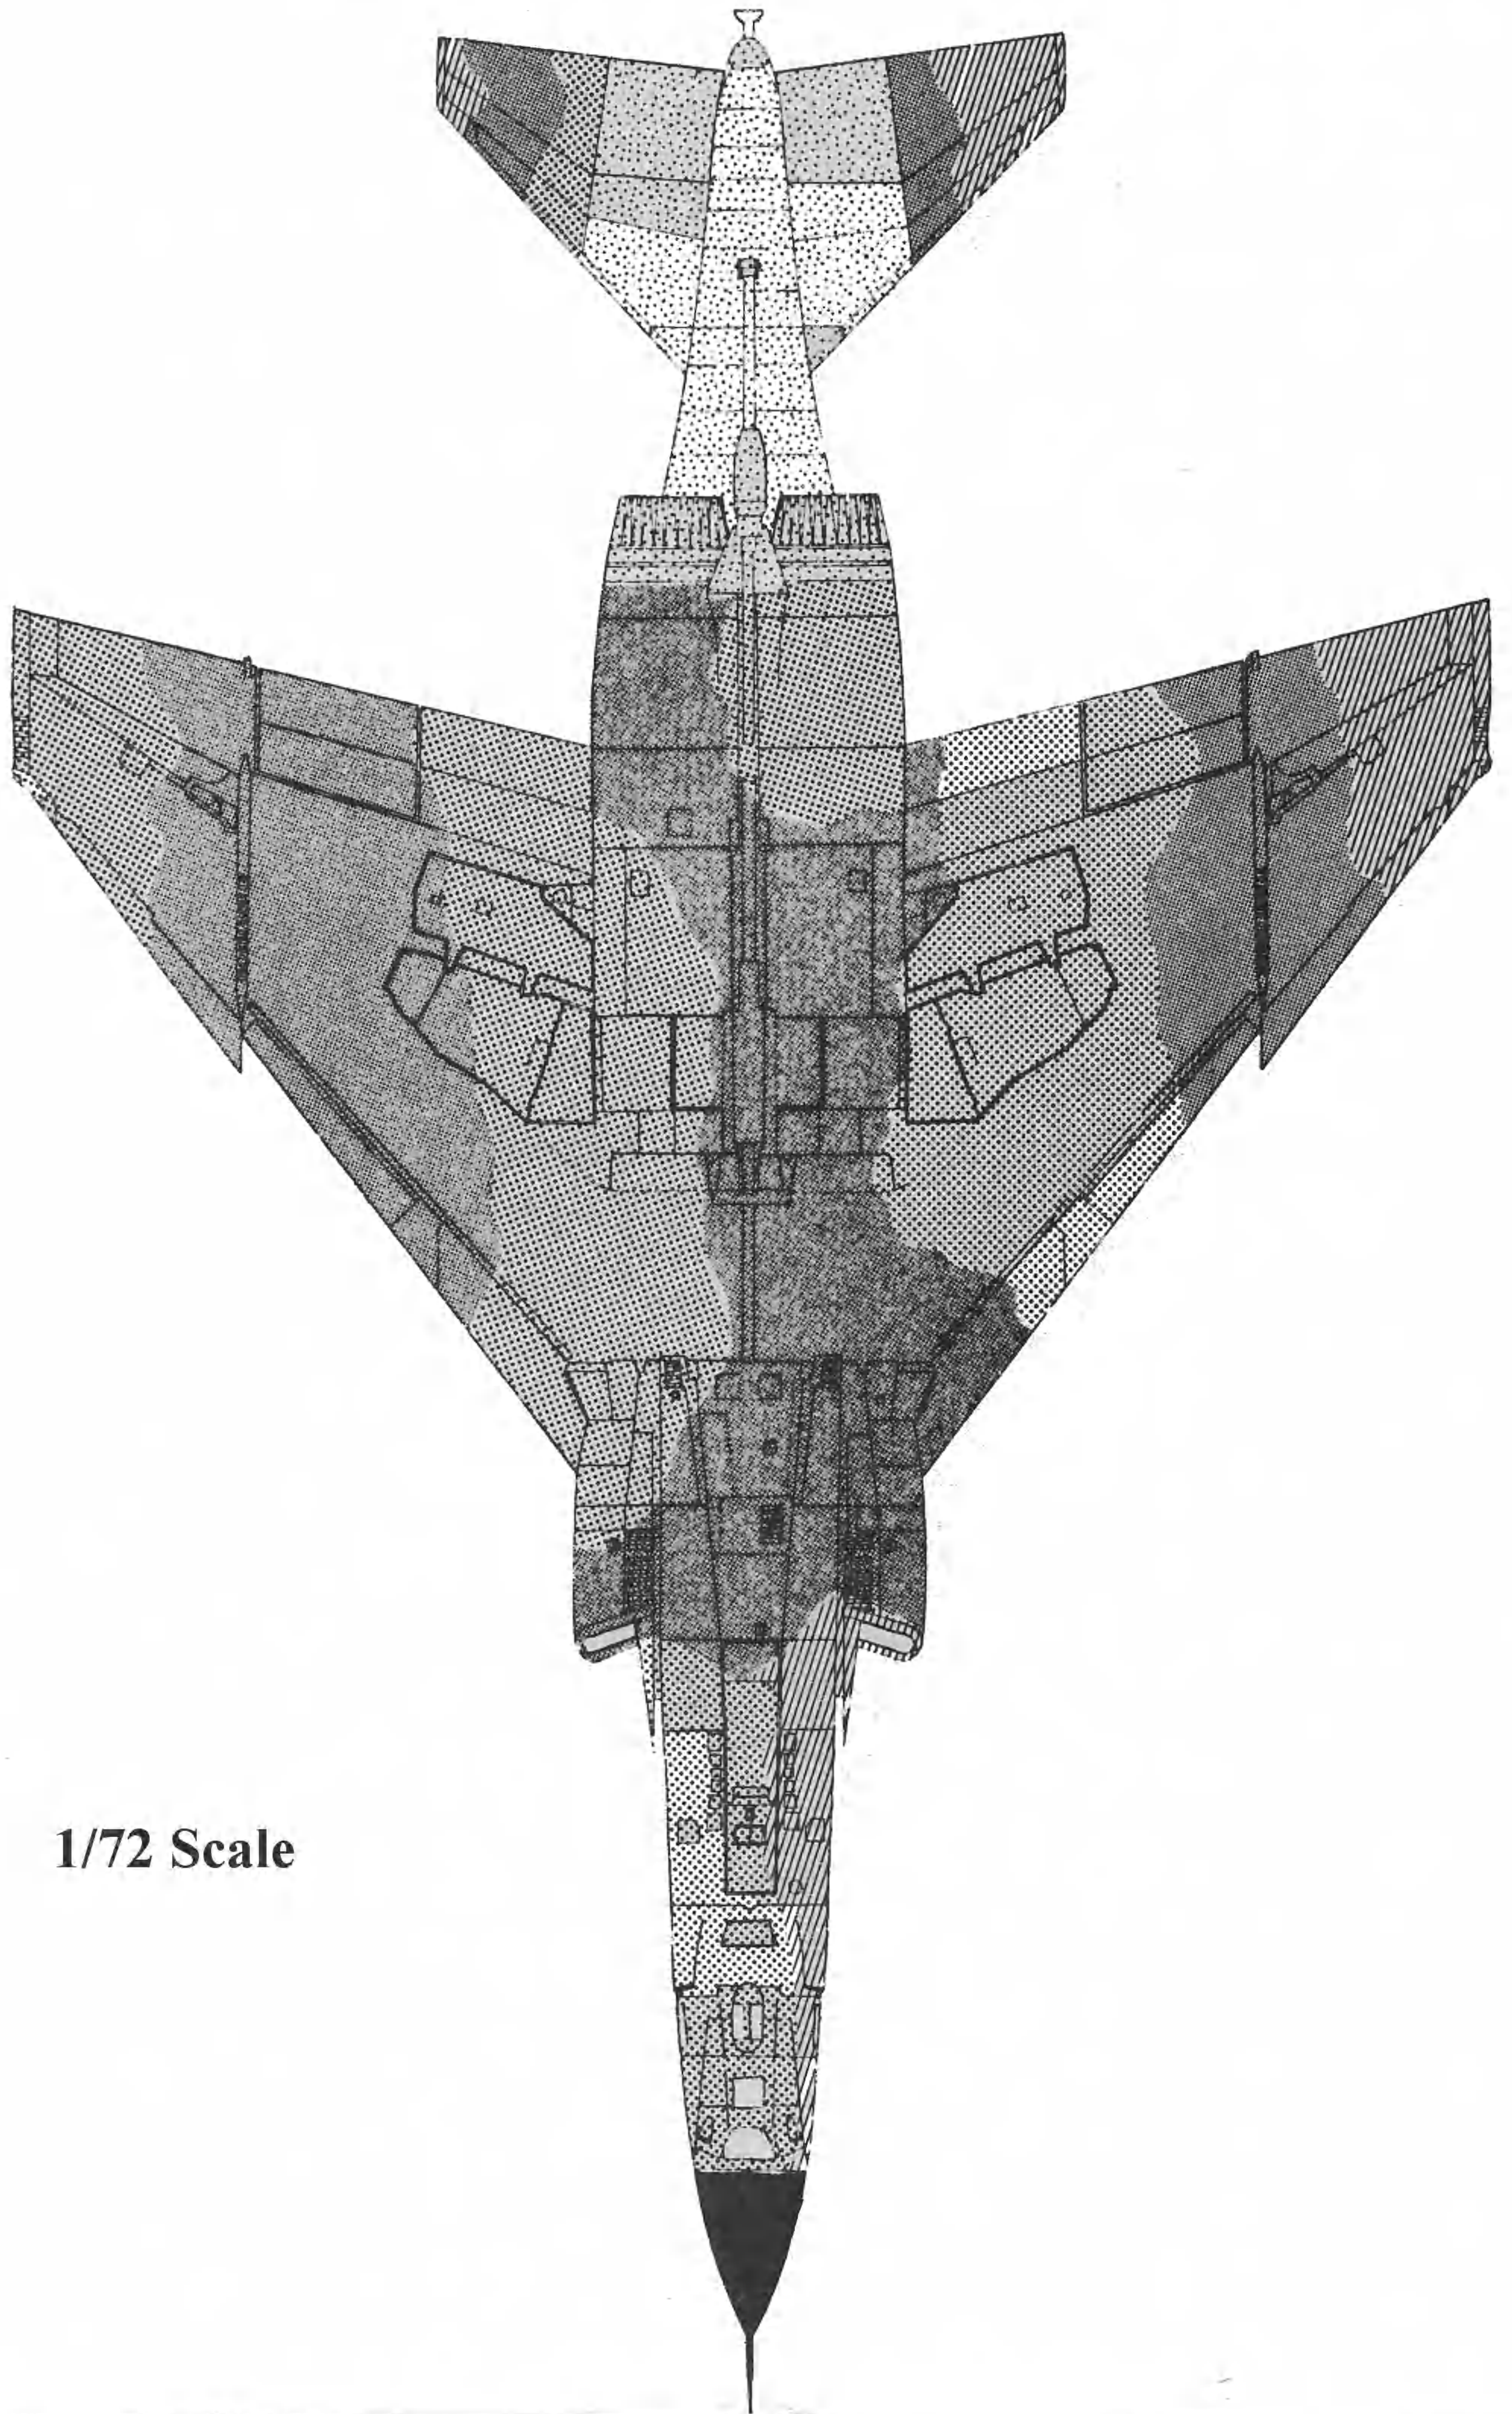

30219 Tan

34102 Green

34079 Green

Bare metal

1/72 Scale